Dedication

Dear Miss Gilson and Mr. Forlini,

We the class of 1990 would like to dedicate the yearbook to you.

Through the years, you have taught us patience, creativity, perseverance, and have given freely of your time, and by doing this we have shown our friendship towards each other.

Thank you,
The Class of 1990

IN REMEMBRANCE OF . . .

CHRISTINE

Christine was a good person. She was a good friend and she was always there when you needed someone to talk to. She gave good advice too. We had some really good times together. She was never afraid to speak her mind. I guess that was one of the things that made her special. Christine was special to all of us in our own ways. I'll always remember you.

RHODA

Rhoda was a person you could really count on and wouldn't let you down . . . Rhoda was one friend that could never be replaced. — Sara Spencer

I remember the good times and all the fun and trouble we caused in our classes . . . as long as I live I will never forget her. — Michelle Barton

Rhoda was one of my best friends. She was one of the nicest girls anyone could ever meet. — Missy Campo

Before writing this class history, I called my buddy, Ed Leavitt, to get some ideas on how to present it. After a while, (you know how boring Ed is!), I fell asleep. Then . . . The Strangest thing happened. I had the weirdest dream.

I first envisioned our Freshman Year. All of our officers; Jessica Samuolis, Jason Menger, Roy Colson, and Christine Tyrer, were there. I recalled the theme of our Pep Rally, "Panthers Top The NCCC," which brought us a second place ranking.

Then our Sophomore year came back to me. I saw the class winning first place at the Pep Rally with the theme, "Walk Like A Panther." I clearly saw our Sophomore officers: JoAnna Sinsigallo, Jason Menger, Roy Colson, and Heather Yount, cheering in the stands.

The Next sequence of my dream was a scene from our Junior Prom, which was held at La Renaissance. All of our class officers were there; JoAnna Sinsigallo, Jason Menger, Jen Bielen, and Lisa Pinette. I remember talking with JoAnna about our successful Pep Rally Theme, "Panthers Slay The NCCC," which, once again, brought us to First Place. I still remember the excitement of Jennifer Warren being crowned Queen, and Christopher Hayes declared King.

Our senior Year was very clear to me in my dream. I saw all of us at the Graduate and Celebrate party saying one last "Good Luck" to each other. We all talked about our last four years together and about our special night at the Senior Banquet, held at The Colosseum. The class said Goodbye to the Class of 1990 Senior officers: JoAnna Sinsigallo, Amy Schnobrich, Jen Bielen, and Lisa Pinette. After I visioned the Past, I saw all of our classmates in the Future! Here is what the Class of 1990 will be doing in the year 2001:

Seniors

The seasons of our lives are seasons for change.
They are passages of time,
full of thoughts, actions, and people that rearrange our days into memories.
They begin with our dreams,
each as numerous as the autumn leaves that remind us of the changes that life holds in store for us.
And as winter's snow changes the world around us, so too, do our perceptions of our selves and the paths we seek to follow.
It is a time of thought, a time of self,
a time to reflect on where we are going and who we will become.
Soon, these answers become clear, as the world around us springs forth with challenges and change.
Never constant,
we are a reflection of the world in which we live,
a world where our todays prepare us for the tomorrows to come.
Summer then beckons us to leave this place we have come to call home.
And as we end one dream, we begin another.
For the seasons of our lives, are seasons for change.
